We are seeking a domestic and family violence (DFV) worker for our South West Sydney Women's Domestic Violence Court Advocacy Service (SWS WDV CAS) team.

About Justice Support Centre

Justice Support Centre is a not for profit community legal centre.

Our legal services include information, advice and legal representation for people in South West Sydney whose access to justice is denied or constrained, and include specialised legal services for victim-survivors of DFV.

Our DFV services include court support and advocacy, safety planning, case management and financial counselling.

Both the legal and DFV teams offer tailored training and workshops to community members and community organisations.

We give our clients the guidance, legal advice, support services and strength they need to claim their rights, know their options and choose their next steps.

Our Reconciliation Action Plan working group is a committed staff team – one of its goals is enabling the Centre to strengthen relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in our local communities.

About the role

The DFV specialist worker (ATSI focus) assists the Manager in service delivery. She also provides high level expert advice regarding how to ensure the SWS WDV CAS is relevant, accessible and responsive to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women and their children.

Applicants must have a commitment to empowering women and children affected by DFV, demonstrated ability to engage effectively with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients, and demonstrated ability to engage effectively with clients in crisis. Full details of responsibilities and the essential criteria for application, are outlined in the position description.

Closing Date: Suitable applicants will be interviewed progressively. We know your time is valuable so please check with alison@justicesupportcentre.org.au before applying, to ensure the position has not been filled.

Contact Person: Enquiries about the role should be emailed to:
Farah Assafiri, Manager SWS WDVCS

- Providing relevant information and making warm referrals to a range of service providers to assist clients with their ongoing needs;
- Liaising with clients in relation to Safety Action Plans developed at SAMs and/or support provided, or arranged, by the SWSWDVCAS;
- Attending court on AVO list days and other days as required and where time allows, in particular mentions, hearings, prosecutor hearing clinics etc to provide information, assistance, referrals and court advocacy for SWSWDVCAS clients, and in particular Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women and children as directed by the SWSWDVCAS Manager/Assistant Manager;
- Ensuring the safety of SWSWDVCAS clients at court by advocating on their behalf with court staff and Sheriff Officers to assist them into and out of court. Obtaining copies of orders and other notices from the court staff on behalf of SWSWDVCAS clients, as required;
- Developing and maintaining strong working relationships with key WDVCS partners including the NSW Police Force, local courts, legal representatives and referral agencies, to facilitate client access to those agencies and services;
- Ensuring women have access to appropriate legal representation for Apprehended Domestic Violence Order (ADVO) matters as required i.e. private ADVO applications, and in particular Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women and children;
- Assisting the SAM Coordinator to develop and administer policies, systems and processes for the effective operation of the SWSWDVCAS SAMs;
- Providing high level advice to the SWSWDVCAS Manager to develop and implement strategies aimed at making SWSWDVCAS services relevant, accessible and responsive to the needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women and children;
- In liaison with the SWSWDVCAS Manager, developing solid working relationships and referral networks with local services that respond to the particular needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women and children, for example attending Aboriginal Health services, Aboriginal community justice groups and/or NSW police force Aboriginal consultative committee meetings;

- In liaison with the SWSWDVCAS Manager, developing links with local Aboriginal communities to promote the services of the SWSWDVCAS and encourage women to use the services of the WDV CAS, for example by facilitating women's groups;
- Participating in NAIDOC week, Sorry Day, Reconciliation Celebrations, Survival Day (Australia Day) and other local Aboriginal community activities and initiatives which help promote the services of SWSWDVCAS, subject to workload and resources of the SWSWDVCAS, as directed by the Manager;
- You are encouraged to, and may choose to participate in our Reconciliation Action Plan working group
- Providing feedback and advice to the SWSWDVCAS Manager about local issues affecting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients and access to SWSWDVCAS services and legal processes;
- Adhering to Justice Support Centre & WDV CAP principles, policies and standards in undertaking the work, in particular those relating to client confidentiality and privacy, referrals to and from the SWSWDVCAS, client and worker safety, staff professionalism, child protection notifications and follow-up assistance;
- Complying with the SAM manual and the Domestic Violence Information Sharing Protocol;
- Fulfilling reporting requirements for the WDV CAP database and the CRP in line with the WDV CAP Service Agreement, the WDV CAP Policy and Procedure manual and SAM manual;
- Collecting data for the WDV CAP database and any other information, as directed by the SWSWDVCAS Manager/Assistant Manager;
- Undertaking all necessary training as outlined in the WDV CAS service agreement and the WDV CAP Policy and procedure manual; and
- Other duties consistent with the role that may from time to time be required as directed by the SWSWDVCAS Manager.

General

- Undertaking your own word-processing as well as clerical and administrative duties for your role;
- Attending and actively participating in team and staff meetings;
- Contributing to the policy development, planning and organisational processes of SWSWDVCAS;
- Cooperating with other members of staff in the provision of effective services in accordance with the SWSWDVCAS's aims and objectives;
- Actively participating in and contributing to the promotional activities of SWSWDVCAS;
- Adhering to and working within codes of practice relevant to your role and position in the community and community sector;
- Undertaking training to develop and maintain skills and qualifications necessary to effectively fulfil your position;
- Maintaining an up to date working knowledge of the law and practice and procedure relevant to the position;

- Maintaining a working familiarity with office equipment required within the position; and
- Attending and participating actively in management, staff appraisals and SWSWDVCAS and Justice Support Centre planning activities, including planning days as required.

Accountability and Administration
