

Victim Support

Payments for Domestic Violence

If you have suffered physical or psychological harm, damage or loss of property because of violence, you may be eligible to claim for Victims Services support.

Domestic Violence, sexual assault and attempted sexual assault are all acts of violence for which victim's support is available.

Depending on your circumstances, Victims Support may include:

Counselling – to assist with your recovery.

Financial Assistance for Immediate Needs – money to meet your urgent needs. For example:

- money to help you relocate to a safer place
- money to improve the safety and security of your home (e.g. changing locks).

Financial Assistance for Economic Loss – money to aid your recovery. For example, to pay for:

- loss of earnings or wages
- medical and dental treatment
- expenses related to loss or damage to your personal effects (e.g. smashed mobile phone).

Recognition Payment – a one-off payment to acknowledge your injuries and impact of the violence.

Please read the Victims Services guide on the reverse side for a summary of what support is available and time limits for when you can claim
